

Family Event - Creative Activities and Iranian Film At Nottingham Contemporary Monday 6 May 11am - 3pm Free

- 11am - 3pm A day of activities led by artists from Nottingham Contemporary, exploring the Boots and Routes theme of shoes and Mark Leckey's exhibition theme of how we bring old things to life!
- 1.30pm A screening of Children of Heaven, a family friendly Iranian film about a boy who loses his sister's shoes and creates an elaborate mission to get them back. In Farsi with English subtitles. Running time approximately 89mins. The film will be introduced by Mr Reza Morsh, who will share his experience of moving from Iran to Nottingham in the 1970s.

Places in the film screening are limited.

Please follow the link <http://bootsandroutes.eventbrite.com/> or ring Nottingham Contemporary on 0115 948 9750 to book your free place.

Boots and Routes is an exhibition of shoes and stories at Nottingham Castle and at Wollaton Hall's Yard Gallery.

For further details visit www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/bootsandroutes or follow us on Facebook: Boots and Routes.

