

Join us for the

African Women Empowerment Forum

Putting African Women Centre Stage

Saturday 30th November 2013 Conference/Dinner

From 3:30PM to 10PM

Designed to Educate, Motivate, Inspire and Empower women to live their best lives
Let's celebrate Womanhood and cultivate Women Leadership!

Guests Of Honour

Cllrs Merlita Bryan
(Lord Mayor)

&

Stephen Ndungu

(MT Kenya Talents Development Centre)
(Vice President of African Athletes Council)

Speakers

Muzvare Betty Makoni
(Girl Child Network)

Faith Gakanje
(AWEF CEO & Director)

Maria Ward
(Nottingham CVS)

VENUE

The Bridge Centre,
49A Gregory Boulevard, Nottingham, NG7 4BQ

For Information please contact:

Faith: 07769809129, Delia: 07854553907

Jubeida: 07576625254, Stella: 07946259932

- Free Child Care Available -

Our event will help:

To provide an opportunity for women and young people to learn and be inspired by example in building world reknown organisations from scratch.
- Betty Makoni

To address governance in women led organisations - Maria Ward

To highlight the ways in which AWEF will provide opportunities that will educate, support and inspire women in moving forward -Faith Gakanje

Who Should Attend:

Women of all races, and professions are encouraged to attend.

Women in business or thinking of getting into self employment

Anyone having the development of Africa women's interest at heart

All are welcome

Event M.C. Kevin Ncube

Performers

Uzambezi Arts
Performers

&

Donna Green

Admission:

Conference & Dinner - £10

Conference only - Donation

Children - free

African Women Empowerment Forum Annual General Meeting (AGM)

will also take place on the day from 3:30pm to 5:00pm

Nottingham
City Council